

Dear Presidents,
Dear members of CALRE,

I am pleased to invite you to the Plenary Assembly of the Conference of European Regional Legislative Assemblies (CALRE), which will take place on November 9-10 in the Andalusian Parliament in Seville (Spain).

As President of CALRE it would be an honor for me to count on your presence in this meeting and I thank you in advance for your interest and effort to attend the Plenary in Seville.

In addition to the Seville Declaration, which will be discussed at the meeting, I would like to take the opportunity of this meeting to continue the debate on the future of the Union and the reflection on Europe that we opened earlier this year and which has been present in the CALRE activity throughout the year, both from this Presidency and the Working Groups, as well as with the activities that have been organized in parallel in the different regions.

I am convinced that 2017 is a decisive year for the future of the European common project, and that the regions and we, as representatives of regional assemblies with legislative powers, have an important role to play, but also the duty to collaborate in this task.

I await your response.

With my very best wishes,

Juan Pablo Durán Sánchez

Presidente de CALRE
