Short description of the initiative:

Reflection of the Walloon Parliament on the future of Europe and annual hearing of European experts in the framework of the European Semester follow-up

The Parliament of Wallonia has decided to contribute to the reflection on the future of Europe following the publication of the European Commission's White Paper. In this context, the European Affairs Committee organised a round of hearings of nine experts between September 2017 and February 2018 concerning, in particular, the reform of European instruments governing public investments with a view to strengthening European growth.

The Walloon Parliament is also involved in the follow-up of the European Semester. Within this framework, the European Affairs Committee organises an annual hearing of experts from the European Commission to discuss the European institutions' analysis of the Belgian and Walloon socio-economic and budgetary situation, in particular.

This annual meeting was held on the 15th of March 2018.
