Short description of the initiative:

A decree by all, a decree for all

It's not just on election day that Wallonia's citizens can make their voice heard!

That is why the Parliament of Wallonia has introduced a number of instruments (see : <https://www.parlement-wallonie.be/vous-faire-entendre>) allowing citizens to interact with Members of Parliament. On the 16th of May 2018, the Parliament of Wallonia decided to go a step further by now offering citizens a chance to participate directly, with the Members of Parliament, in the drafting of legislative proposals via a digital collaborative platform "A decree by all, a decree for all".

This allows interested MPs to involve citizens in the preparation of a draft decree. Citizens can contribute by intervening on a specific problem, identified by an MP, who undertakes to individually address the remarks that receive the most support.

The first two themes are the strengthening of local commerce and the creation of "zero long-term unemployed" territories.
